

Normanby School Titiro Ki Runga

Annual Report 2023

Strategic Goals

Goal One: Our Students

To provide our students with a range of learning opportunities to be lifelong learners.

Building Relationships

Goal Two: Our Staff

To develop professional capability always aiming for effectiveness and excellence.

Goal Three: Our Community

To engage our community to be actively involved in the life of our school and to have a positive home-school partnership.

Annual Plan 2023

Key Objectives:

- Te Ao Maori

Provide a culturally responsive school environment.

- Positive Behaviour For Learning (PB4L)

Create a safe and supportive environment within our school community to build positive and respectful relationships that improve academic achievement and encourage independent and lifelong learners.

- Maths

To strengthen teachers' capability for effective pedagogical and content knowledge of the maths curriculum to improve achievement and engagement. This will result in accelerated progress for all students, with 80% achieving the benchmark for their age in Mathematics.

- Well Being

Ensuring all aspects of our students' and staff wellbeing are supported so we can all be effective participants and contributors.

- Local Curriculum

To provide a balanced curriculum that makes effective use of our local resources to enable our akonga to connect with and value their environment, heritage, language, identity and culture.

- Digital Technology

To ensure that all learners have the opportunity to become digitally capable individuals.

Mathematics

Objective: To strengthen teachers' capability for effective pedagogical and content knowledge of the maths curriculum to improve achievement and engagement. This will result in accelerated progress for all students, with 80% achieving the benchmark for their age in Mathematics.

Goals What do we want to achieve?	Action Plan How will we do it?	Evaluation How will we measure success?
To continue to use the RbL observation tool and impact coaching to provide teachers with evidence of effective teaching practice in Mathematics.	- Impact Coaches will complete a full observation of all staff in Terms 1 and 3 and code the evidence from the three parts of the RbL profile. This will allow teachers to set next learning steps and goals in relation to RbL discourses and interactions in the teaching of mathematics. Teachers can request observations and coaching at any stage.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Coaching conversations between teacher and impact coach to determine an achievable goal</li> <li>• Student voice collection</li> <li>• Data collection through impact coaching and observations.</li> <li>• Co-construction meetings to develop next steps for target students and to share effective maths pedagogy within the Maths no problem programme.</li> </ul>
Students to be able to articulate and explain their learning and thinking in Mathematics.	- Students to be working collaboratively with a buddy in all maths lessons. - Explicit teaching and modelling of how to explain and articulate thinking and problem solve together. - Further sharing and explaining opportunities to be provided in all lessons (ie to class or small group). - Journaling to be explicitly taught and incorporated into lessons at least twice per week.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Student voice collection, observations, reflections</li> <li>• Review aspect of daily lessons: what are you learning, how do you know you have been successful, what are your next steps?</li> <li>• Journaling evidence</li> </ul>
To develop students self-efficacy and a growth mindset in mathematics	- Give opportunities and a clear message to students that they are mathematicians and that maths is all around us. Noticing and celebrating students achievements, teaching the students about how to develop a growth mindset, positive acknowledgements of students thinking and actions as they succeed in maths learning, encouraging students to take risks with their learning.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Student voice collection, observations, Hero goals and progression through these</li> </ul>

Mathematics

Goals What do we want to achieve?	Action Plan How will we do it?	Evaluation How will we measure success?
For students to develop mathematical problem-solving skills and abilities.	- All lessons to incorporate ten minutes or "explore" where students are given the tools to actively engage with a mathematical problem. - Explicit teaching of vocabulary and 'making sense of the question.'	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Evidence of students who are able to solve problems successfully and accurately.</li> <li>• Maths buddy's employing co-construction and power-sharing strategies</li> </ul>
For students to build their capability to work together and learn cooperatively.	- Give opportunities for, and explicitly teach the skills of cooperation and collaboration. Collaboration is the 'way of doing' in maths and is provided for in every lesson. - Teachers develop their own knowledge of what makes a good working/learning group, develop anchor charts about how we do this successfully.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Observation, noticing improved practice of cooperative and collaborative learning, students can articulate their thinking confidently and respectfully to each other.</li> <li>• Students understand the value of working collaboratively and can appreciate the thinking of others.</li> </ul>
Deliver an engaging and exciting mathematics curriculum	- Work together as a whole staff to develop our capabilities, support colleagues, share resources, target time to discuss Maths - No Problem and achievement in co-construction meetings. - Teachers to know the lesson well prior to teaching so they can foresee any difficulties or challenges that may crop up, find out student interests, relevant, authentic.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• They are engaged and excited about maths learning and look forward to doing maths, ongoing collation of student voice.</li> </ul>

Evaluation and Analysis of Student Progress and Achievement 2023

2023 Learning Interventions - Tracking Tracking the progress of students receiving additional learning support in the form of an intervention programme such as 'FivePlus' or 'SevenPlus'. Target students are in Y2-Y3 reading at Yellow (Level 6,7,8) to Green (Level 12,13, 14) or older students reading below Orange (L15-16).

Mid-2023 Maths Data Analysis Our achievement target in Mathematics is for 80% of all students to be AT or ABOVE the expected curriculum level. Collection of evidence is ongoing. Mid-year data is simply a snapshot in time of how our students are progressing towards meeting the expected levels of the New Zealand Curriculum. Teachers use a range of information and assessments to track the progress and achievement of all students in their class.

End-2023 Maths Data Analysis Summary: It is very pleasing to see that we have achieved accelerated progress for some of our target learners. These are students who were close to meeting the expectation at the last data point but needed a little bit more time and support to get there. We know that this has been achieved as our percentages have increased rather than staying the same. While we continue to have students who are not meeting their expectations, this number is now much smaller than we have seen in some of our previous years. Our teachers are aware of the additional learning needs and support or adaptations that these children require to be successful to their full potential. Overall, I feel that this data is very pleasing and appreciate the work our team has put in over the year to teach our children to be confident and capable mathematicians. I also thank our management team for the commitment to continue with maths no problem into 2024 and to the board for continuing to support the investment into maths learning and teaching at our school.

Mid-2023 Literacy Data Analysis Our achievement target in Literacy (Reading and Writing) is for 70% of all students to be AT or ABOVE the expected curriculum level. Collection of evidence is ongoing. Mid-year data is simply a snapshot in time of how our students are progressing towards meeting the expected levels of the New Zealand Curriculum. Teachers use a range of information and assessments to track the progress and achievement of all students in their class.

End-2023 Literacy Data Analysis We are very pleased with the increase in achievement levels in both Reading and Writing for this second half of the year and can celebrate the fact that we have reached our achievement target in both these learning areas. This is indicative of the hard work and consistency in teaching and learning programmes this year. Our current Year 5 and 6 cohorts in particular have made significant gains in both Reading and Writing, bringing them much closer to that 70% target.

It seems that now would be an appropriate time to review that 70% achievement target in Literacy and might consider pushing it out to 75% for the 2024 academic year.

It is also a good time to signpost that the learning area of English in the refreshed New Zealand Curriculum (2023) is going to see a change in how achievement is measured and reported to parents and Boards by 2025. We will be starting to explore what this might look like in 2024.

Teachers will continue to use assessment data to evaluate student progress across Reading and Writing and target those students who are currently working towards as well as those who are considered to be 'at risk' of falling into the working towards category. These are the students who we monitor closely during team and co-construction monitoring meetings. Planning will cater for the needs of all students by differentiating learning tasks and utilising any LA support effectively.

A strong emphasis is now placed on the teaching of structured literacy to ensure that essential literacy knowledge and skills are embedded, right from entering school as a new entrant. Teachers regularly assess students in their structured literacy journey and identify those who would benefit from extra explicit teaching as part of a Tier 2 intervention group through the BSLA approach in the junior school.

We want to continue to focus on the progress that is being made and celebrate student success in achieving learning goals. Conversations with individual students about their learning goals and next steps help them to see where they are currently at with their learning, where they have come from (progress) and what their next learning steps will be.

Twice per term teachers come together to moderate achievement data using set guidelines. We draw on assessment data and other learning evidence to support our decision-making and we are very focused on identifying those students who need to make shifts in order to continue or to maintain the progress they have already made. Target groups need to be flexible and fluid and teachers know that they need to adapt and be responsive to individual needs.

We need to highlight the number of students (26%) needing additional learning support in our school as these numbers continue to have an impact on our overall achievement data.

Teachers believe in the power of Relationship-based Learning and we continue to create family-like contexts within our classrooms where students feel supported to have ownership of their learning, and where teachers are interacting with students in a way that promotes positive learning outcomes. Interactions such as drawing on students' prior learning, power-sharing, co-construction, and giving effective feedback and feed-forward, all impact on learning.

We will continue to use our Learning Assistants to provide daily 1:1 or small group intervention programmes for students who are identified as requiring additional learning support. (Early Words, sight words, 5+, 7+, Quick 60, Talk to Learn). The teachers of students on such programmes continue to notice a positive impact on their confidence, fluency and progress - our LAs are such a valuable resource and our teaching staff greatly appreciate their support.

SENCO Report 2023 The Learning Support Register holds information for students that have any additional learning or behaviour requirements and/or interventions. Our Learning Support Register on HERO is populating a group based on information added by the classroom teacher, leadership and/or the SENCO. Once identified as needing additional support, we closely monitor these students for a minimum of 18 months. Every time we take an action such as a new intervention or we identify different needs, this 18 month period resets.

Students requiring additional support are categorised:

- Tier 1:

Students identified as needing extra support by classroom teachers and curriculum leads. The SENCO coordinates and supports intervention programmes for these students if appropriate.

- Tier 2:

Students have received previous in-school interventions and have been identified as requiring further intervention support from outside agencies (RTLB, counsellors) or requiring an Individual Education Plan, Behaviour Plan or Safety Plan (IEP/IBP/ISP) and/ or have high health needs. The SENCO supports and coordinates support alongside our Lead Team and outside agencies.

- Tier 3:

Students are identified as Tier 3 when support is in place from the Ministry of Education or Ongoing Resourcing Scheme (ORS). Support systems will also include elements of Tier 2 support and are supported by the Principal and SENCO.

Structured Literacy - 'Better Start Literacy' Data Analysis This analysis set is based on students entering school who were not proficient at the three assessment tasks; Phoneme Identity, Letter-Sound Knowledge and Phoneme Blending. These students were tracked over ten weeks of teaching and then re-assessed.

Honouring Te Tiriti o Waitangi

Normanby School recognise our role and responsibility to honour and give effect to Te Tiriti o Waitangi. We acknowledge the descendants of the Ngāruahine and Ngāti Ruanui iwi, on whose whenua we are positioned. Under the Education and Training Act 2020, a primary objective of the board of Normanby School is to give effect to Te Tiriti o Waitangi. In 2023 providing a culturally responsive school environment was a key goal of our School Charter. Our aims were to:

- Embrace Te Reo Māori, Tikanga, Wairua and Kawa across the school to be responsive to our students.
- Engage parents, whānau, hapu and iwi to enhance the achievement of Māori students.
- A commitment to and understanding of Māori enjoying and achieving education success as Māori. Lifting the achievement of Māori learners to higher levels of proficiency across the curriculum.
- Having teachers who continuously lift their levels of Te Reo proficiency.

We are committed to working more closely with and strengthening our connections with whānau, hapū, iwi and community in ways that are effective within school and across the wider Kāhui Ako:

...our dynamic, dialogic (conversation or shared dialogue) and relational pedagogy of practice continues to be Russell Bishop's 'Relationship-based Learning' (RbL), a culturally responsive pedagogy that enables currently marginalised students to bring their cultural knowledge, understanding and sense-making processes to the forefront in an agentic way, i.e Māori achieving success as Māori.

We have worked to ensure our planning, policies and local curriculum celebrate and reflect local tikanga Māori, mātauranga Māori and te ao Māori. In 2023, our local curriculum was refreshed to begin the process of aligning with the whakapapa and intent of Te Mātaiaho, the refreshed New Zealand Curriculum.

In 2024, part of our strategic plan is to continue this mahi in order to strengthen what we do so that all ākonga excel and experience success in their learning.

Targeted curriculum initiatives and school systems that support our commitment to giving effect to Te Tiriti o Waitangi include:

- Whole school morning hui - we begin every day with whakatauki/karakia and waiata, karakia kai before eating times.
- Use of Te Whare Tapa Wha model of hauora when learning about wellbeing
- Subscription to 'Wai Ako' and 'HīHā' to support teachers in the delivery of explicit te reo Māori teaching which is scheduled daily school-wide.
- Common practice model- Relationship-based Learning, a culturally responsive pedagogy which forms the basis of teachers' professional growth cycles
- Ongoing commitment to building teacher knowledge and capabilities in te reo Māori, tikanga and mātauranga Māori e.g teacher registration in Te Ahu o Te Reo Māori (2 staff in 2023), whole school Kapa Haka every week, expanding bank of known waiata, increased use of Māori kupu and phrases
- Kapa Haka performance group (Puanga Festival, school events e.g prizegiving, whanau days, concert
- Destreaming in Mathematics instruction
- Tuakana - Teina opportunities
- Staff PLD on Te Tiriti o Waitangi and Aotearoa New Zealand Histories
- Emphasis on use of pūrākau integrated across the curriculum

Kiwi Sport Funding

Kiwi Sport is a Government funding initiative to support student participation in organised sport. In 2023, Normanby School received $2,285.40 (excl GST). This funding was spent on a range of sporting endeavors, with the majority of the money going towards transport costs to sporting events, equipment and sports kit.

Employment and EEO Policy

Normanby School board acts as a good employer and takes all reasonable steps to build working relationships based on trust, confidence, and good faith. The board treats employees fairly and properly in all aspects of their employment as required by the Public Service Act 2020, and complies with legislation on employment and personnel matters. The board complies with the conditions contained in employment contracts for teaching and non-teaching staff.

The board ensures strong leadership by recognising the principal as the school's educational leader, the chief executive, and an employee of the board. The board meets reporting and administrative requirements by:

- referring to the school's Equal Employment Opportunities policy in its annual report on the extent of its compliance as a good employer
- ensuring that systems are in place for keeping employee files safe and secure.

In 2023 the board employed 4 new staff members, one in the Principal role, two full time, permanent teaching roles and one support staff role. The school policy for appointments was followed.

As required by the Education and Training Act 2020 (s 597), Normanby School operates an employment policy that complies with the principle of being a good employer and ensures the fair and proper treatment of staff in all aspects of their employment. This Equal Employment Opportunities (EEO) policy is our framework for providing an inclusive, non-discriminatory workplace, and promoting equal opportunities for all staff members.

Normanby School promotes equal opportunities by applying our EEO framework to all relevant school policies and procedures, particularly those relating to employment (e.g. recruitment and selection, training, professional development, and promotion).

This is to ensure that we:

- treat current and prospective staff fairly
- make decisions based on relevant merit
- work to eliminate bias and discrimination.

**Refer to our Employer Responsibilities and Equal Employment Opportunities policies for more detail.*
